Barbara Bell Patterns

Here's Accent On Slimness

PATTERN 1545-B

What could be a more pleasant preface to spring than a new house frock to wear right now and throughout the sunshiny days ahead? Pattern No. 1545-B is such a cheery dress bright as a May morning with its ric-rac outlines around neckline, cuffs and seams. Miraculously easy to make too, so that you can quickly have several frocks of this style.

The new flattering neckline is emphasized by a single button and side pieces introduced in the skirt accent the slimness of your hips. A few darts a few gathers and the bodice fits smoothly and easily. The sleeves are perfectly simple and can be short or draped length coming just below the elbow.

When you've made two or three house dresses with this adjustable pattern you'll be more than ready to try a silk or rayon print in it too, and thus you'll gain a dignified flattering street dress which you can wear everywhere.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1545-B is designed for sizes 4, 6, 8, 10, 12, 14, 16 and 18. Size 16 short sleeve requires 4 yards 35-inch material. 3 yards ric rac braid.

Junior Red Cross Gives Donation to Children's Fund

Voting to donate $25 to the national children's fund, members of the Junior Red Cross met Saturday afternoon at the Lutheran Brotherhood.

At the next meeting scheduled for March 28, two high school candidates will be chosen to attend the national convention in Philadelphia, to be held sometime this spring.

President Mary Jane Hudson conducted the meeting, and members were urged to enlarge meeting attendance.

Amounts of final school contributions to the Red Cross emergency war relief fund were announced and are as follows: High school $56.14; Naval Avenue, $20.22; Hillcrest, $19.59; Smith $16.50; Star of Sea, $14.50; Haddon, $10.05; Navy Yard City, $4.85; Lincoln, $4.32; Kitsap Lake, $3.84; Central, $3.25; Westpark, $2.29.

Japanese, Beware!

SCAPPOOSE, Ore., Feb. 25. (UP)—Businessmen of this little town hope that the Japs will have reason to remember Scappoose.

They have constructed a sign in the center of town which reads:

"Put it (scrap iron) on this pile and let the few Japs who are left say, 'Remember Scappoose.'"

SHIRT-TAIL SUIT, cardigan styled, with slanted pocket flaps and kick-pleat skirt. In Botany flannel, in luscious colors.

Seattle Fishermen's Terminal Swept By 3-Alarm Blaze

SEATTLE, Feb. 25. (UP)—Authorities today sought to learn the origin of a fire which raged over a waterfront area embracing a city block for two hours last night, destroying a unit of the Port of Seattle's Salmon Bay Terminal and an adjoining furniture factory. Loss was figured at $500,000.

Horace P. Chapman president of the Port Commission, said he did not believe it was the work of saboteurs.

Four fire companies answered the three-alarm call and succeeded in preventing the blaze from spreading to Fishermen's dock and numerous boats anchored nearby.

Only the framework and one wall remained of the two-story wooden unit of the terminal group. The terminal serves as winter storage and repair headquarters for fishermen.

TOP RANKING topcoat, functional and good looking — in 100% Arlingcrest naphthalated wool worsted, with fly-front, slash pockets and swing collar.

Loan Association's Stockholders Meet

Annual stockholders meeting of the Kitsap Pomona National Farm Loan association was held Saturday, in the Odd Fellows hall, Port Orchard. Short talks were given by Walter J. Clarkson and Miss Thornton, county extension agents, and Mrs. Fitzgerald, assistant supervisor of Farm Security Administration. Entertainment, arranged by Mrs. Oscar Johnson, was furnished by Miss Olive Bunton, Mrs. Clyde Vaughn, Mrs. Dan Davis and Mrs. Roy Mitchell.

Two representatives from the Federal Land Bank of Spokane were present—J. C. McCausland, vice president, who gave the main address, and O. G. Swenson, associate regional manager.

Rev. J. Warren Hastings, one of Seattle's foremost spiritual leaders will be principal speaker tomorrow at 12:45 o'clock when Bremerton Kiwanis club meets at the Elks Temple. He will speak relative to the birthday anniversary of George Washington.

Picking Jury in Port Angeles Murder Trial

PORT ANGELES, Feb. 25.—(UP)—The death penalty may be asked by the state for Monty J. Illingsworth, 36, charged with the murder of his wife, it was indicated today by questioning of prospective jurors.

The "Lady of the Lake" murder trial opened yesterday when 42 persons were called from the first jury panel of 70, but most were excused for objecting to capital punishment on circumstantial evidence.

A jury was expected to be completed today but preparations were made to draw up a new panel.

Illingworth's beautiful 33-year-old wife disappeared on Christmas day 1937. The state charges he killed her, trussed her body and tossed it into Lake Crescent. Fishermen found the body in the lake July 6, 1940.

Except for strangulation marks, the body was remarkably well preserved because of the lake's cold waters.

The body was found after Illingsworth obtained an interlocutory divorce decree and moved to Long Beach, Cal., where he was arrested last year.

Superior Judge H. G. Sutton of Kitsap county, who is presiding, refused to permit Defense Attorney Joseph H. Johnston to refer to a detective story magazine about the case in his questioning of prospective jurors. The defense contended the magazine was released locally two weeks ahead of schedule in a state move to prejudice the jury.

Screen Comedian Takes Baseballs To Alaska Troops

SEATTLE, Feb. 25.—(UP)—Joe E. Brown, the comedian, left for Alaska today to cheer American soldiers and sailors with wisecracks and baseball equipment.

With his luggage aboard a Pan-American Air Lines plane were six dozen baseballs, two dozen bats and three catchers' mitts.

"It will make 12,000 miles of traveling in four weeks," he said. "I like to do it. You can see the reaction. It cheers the boys up. That's about all I've done for six months."

Brown said he would try to visit every military establishment in Alaska and would be in the territory for about two weeks.

County Agent Talks On Victory Gardens

Bremerton and Kitsap county back yards and vacant lots next door will be glorified this year by the patriotic name of "Victory Gardens" when county residents cooperate with the national plan of raising vegetables for the family table.

The plan for the gardens will be explained through the county extension office. The first talk on the subject was given Monday afternoon when County Extension Agent Walter Clarkson spoke before the Curley Creek Garden club.

Any community group interested in the matter may secure Agent Clarkson to speak.
