99,770 Japs Moved Within Time Limit

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8. — (UP) — The army completed its task of evacuating nearly 100,000 persons of Japanese ancestry from the Pacific Coast today, within the time limit set by Lieut. Gen. John L. DeWitt, chief of the western defense command.

Lieut. Col. Karl R. Bendetsen, who directed the evacuation under the wartime civil control administration, said 99,770 persons had been removed without mishap and with a minimum of hardship.

Although the number of Japanese was below the army's original estimate of 125,000 for the states of Washington, Oregon, California and Arizona, thousands had left the 150-mile wide coastal strip voluntarily before the army began handling the assignment.

Only a few thousand of the 99,770 evacuees have reached their ultimate destinations at evacuations camps in California, Arizona, and Colorado. The others are waiting in assembly centers for completion of the camps.

Evacuated Japs to Develop Range Land

WASHINGTON, June 8. — (UP) — The 10,000 Japanese evacuees from the west coast who are to be settled on the 46,000-acre area northeast of Cody, Wyo., will have the opportunity to develop the land for irrigation to produce needed crops, Director M. S. Eisenhower of the war relocation authority announced.

The land development work to be undertaken by the evacuees will advance work begun by the federal bureau of reclamation. The bureau will provide engineers and other technicians to aid the Japanese in planning and carrying out the program.

The Japanese will not obtain any rights or interests in the land, it was said.

Honors Accorded Robert Honodel At State College

Many honors were accorded Robert C. Honodel, son of Mrs. Andy Honodel, Rt. 1, Box 676, when he was graduated from Washington State College last Monday.

A graduate of the school of pharmacy, he was one of the 25 students in the class of 640 receiving highest honors. He is a member of Kappa Psi fraternity, Rho Chi, honorary pharmacy fraternity; Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary; Phi Sigma, national biological research honorary, and the National Pharmaceutical association.

When Robert was graduated from Bremerton high school in 1938 he received the science award and has always been interested in that work.

Though he has been offered many fellowships in various schools, Robert's future plans are uncertain, as his draft number is one of those in the top row.

Mrs. Honodel, Miss Betty Parmley, Robert's fiance, and his mother, Mrs. Dagmar Parmley of Seattle, attended graduation exercises.
