Capture Inner Heart Of Austrian Capital

27,000 German Troops Surrender In East Prussian Fortress City

London, Tuesday, April 10.—(AP)—Russian assault forces, swiftly overrunning rapidly-collapsing enemy resistance in Vienna last Monday night captured the 200-mile front of the Elbe River along which the Soviet, British, American and French armies were advancing. The capture of the inner heart of the city, while Soviet forces in the north conquered the long-impregnable East Prussian Capital of Koenigsberg.

The Soviet war bullet, which was delayed three days beyond its usual time, said today that the center of the business Capital had been captured in wild street fighting that has engulfed more than three-quarters of the entire city.

The fall of Vienna, second greatest city of Adolf Hitler's Greater Germany and the Red Army's largest potential prize, appeared imminent.
