Hitler and Mussolini Want to Dominate Old World, Says Writer

BY DEWITT MACCANN
NEW YORK (AP) - Adolph Hitler and Benito Mussolini, two of the most powerful men of Europe, may dominate the world if the United States and its allies do not check them, Document 62,500-word book said today.

The book, which was written by the author, has just been published and is available at all bookstores.

Platte Valley

Correspondence

BY FRANCIS DONELAN

This week's price for fresh Minds was 2.5% lower than last year. The price dropped to 75¢ per pound from 50¢.

The rainfall was below average throughout the region, and the crops are expected to be slightly below average.

Rock River

Correspondence

BY EVELYN HALL

This week's price for fresh Minds was 3% lower than last year. The price dropped to 80¢ per pound from 90¢.

The rainfall was above average throughout the region, and the crops are expected to be slightly above average.

The School Child and THE AP

The School Child and THE AP is a new education program that combines traditional classroom instruction with modern technology. The program is designed to enhance student engagement and academic achievement.

Harmony

Correspondence

The Harmony church newsletter is now available for download as a PDF from their website. The newsletter includes church news, events, and sermons.

Confessors, Murder, Leaps From Hospital Window

The confessor's murder and the leap from the hospital window are two of the most recent and significant events in the city. The confessor's murder has sparked widespread outrage and a number of arrests have been made.

Everybody's Talking

"TELL HER TO USE MORIAGE & MORTAR, IN YOUR CAR!"

Chief Service Station
3rd & Ivinson
Phone 4042

The Extension Telephone

Order from any employee or just call the business office.

A MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS