50 Millions in Wool Market Loans Are Approved

Authorization of $50,000,000 in wool marketing loans up to 75 per cent of the pre-war parity price on wool was made by the Reconstruction Finance Corporation in Washington, D. C., yesterday.

First word of the loan fixing was brought to Laramie in telegrams to the Republican Boomerang from Senators O'Mahoney and Schwartz. This will figure 17 1/2 per cent in Wyoming, according to the telegrams.

The $50,000,000 will be available through the Commodity Credit Corporation to take care of 250,000,000 pounds of wool, or 75 per cent of the pre-war parity price on wool.

The loans will be open to all producers, according to the program.

MARKET STAGNANT
The action successfully terminated negotiations which had been in progress since early in the session. The uncertainty of the government loan would be fixed had stagnated the market recently.

"While this does not meet expectations of wool producers, it will afford relief to holders of last year's wool and material and landing this year's wool," Senator Schwartz said in his telegram.

The woolmen had sought loans of 75 per cent on the current tax but parity prices rather than 75 per cent on the pre-war parity price.

The loans are of non-recourse variety so growers will incur no financial interest in the wool.

LITTLE STORED HERE
"This action can be interpreted as an indication of government agreement in the future of the wool industry," Senator O'Mahoney said.

Dan John A. Hill, wool specialist at the University, said last night that there was little wool being stored in Albany county, but the loans would cause all sheepmen that the price would not be depressed further this year.

Vandenberg Outlines Plan for Congress

WASHINGTON, March 12.—(AP)—Senator Vandenberg (R, Mich.), frequently mentioned Republican presidential possibility, outlined today his own idea of a congressional program.

"I'd be willing to stand on it," he said in an interview. The senator only smiled when he was asked whether it could be secured after a possible 1940 platform.

Vandenberg indicated he would submit to congress soon a suggestion for an "entirely new type of arm limitation conference."

"The only feasible alternative to the suicidal arms race the whole world is now engaged in."

The senator, who had advocated a coalition of republicans and anti-administration Democrats in the congressional elections this fall and the presidential election of 1940, divided his legislative proposals under these general headings:

Government reform: permit the president to veto individual items in all appropriations bills, create a complete career service in the postoffice department.

Labor: Amendment of the Wagner act to provide "mutual recognition" of labor unions. See VANDEBERG, Page Ten MOSCOW, March 13.—(Sunday)—(AP)—Eighteen of 21 defendants were sentenced to death today in Moscow's greatest treason trial.

Those whose lives were spared were: Christian Rakovskiy, former ambassador to France who was sentenced to 20 years' imprisonment; S. A. Resonoff, former member of the Soviet Trade delegation to Berlin; 15 years and 10 days; and G. A. Gerasimov, heart specialist, 25 years.

Bryce Osbourn Sues Gibbs over Contract

Bryce M. Osbourn yesterday filed suit in the district court against Archie M. Gibbs, owner of the University Lodge, 152 South Third street, seeking $104.65 he claims due him as wages as manager of the restaurant since Nov. 1, 1937.

The suit sets forth that on Feb. 12, 1937, Osbourn and Gibbs entered a contract for operation of the lunch room. Osbourn was to be the manager at $27.50 a week and the contract was to be in effect one year.

On November 1, Osbourn charges, Gibbs discharged him although he had diligently performed his duties and was willing and anxious to continue them. The amount sought represents his wages from November 1 until yesterday, the expiration date of the contract.

Residents of Berlin Are Joyful at Unification

Two Chancellors, One Ruler, One Language
Make for Festivity

BERLIN, March 12.—(AP)—German Nazis were frantic with joy tonight as they grasped the full import of Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler's proclamation on the Austrian coup.

"I have now decided to extend the aid of the Reich to the millions of Germans in Austria," Der Fuehrer proclaimed.

"Since morning soldiers of the German defense force have been marching over all the frontiers of German Austria."

Even as the proclamation was read over all German radio stations by Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels, Hitler himself had crossed the Austrian frontier on a triumphal return to the country of his birth.

Reliable sources estimated 50,000 German soldiers had entered Austria during the day.

The immediate destiny of the 140,000 Germans and Austrians seemed to be—on Hitler, one language, one Fuehrer, but for the present two chancellors and Arthur Seyss-Inquart in Austria and Field Marshal Hermann Wilhelm Goerdeler, named acting chancellor in Germany during Hitler's absence.

Der Fuehrer's steamroller, it is said, soon may be expected to turn toward Czechoslovakia, where there are 2,500,000 Germans in whom Hitler has proclaimed his interest. He is known to have professed

Rural Instructors Hear Talk on Teacher Retirement Act

Nearly 20 rural teachers attended the annual spring conference here yesterday in the high school auditorium.

The attendance was much smaller than had been expected, according to Miss Helen Nelson, county superintendent of schools, because of illness in remote sections of the county made many of the roads impassable.

Ernest Hilton, a Cheyenne teacher, discussed the teacher retirement act and the contract was to be in effect one year.

Fuehrer Casts Eye Toward Czech Border

Thousands Roar in Big Celebration as Leader Rides In from Berlin

VIENNA, March 12.—(AP)—Adolf Hitler joined Austria and Germany tonight as he defied the world to part them.

He proclaimed the new Pan-German union from a large balcony before cheering thousands.

As Hitler spoke Nazi troops, planes and planes swept through Europe and round new fears of European war. Troops came by land and by air.

"No other attempt to part this people will be in vain," the train-phant Fuehrer told wildly cheering throngs massed to welcome his return to his native land and fulfill the of the long-dreamed union of Germany and her southern neighbor.

Declaring it his "divine mission" to lead the German people to a "greater Europe," Hitler told the crowd "your presence is testimony to the wish of thousands to find this pan-Germany and the will of the German people."

"It would be fine also if some of our well known international friends were present," he said, "but see the truth here but also recognize it."

The new Nazi chancellor of Austria, Arthur Seyss-Inquart, greeted Hitler by proclaiming announcement of the treaty of the Anschluss, the forcible union of Germany and Austria.

Hitler lacked his dramatic union of the two German-speaking peoples with the Reich's military might. His gray ranks line every part of Austria and leading German troops face to face with Italy at the Brenner pass.

The Fuehrer saved for tomorrow a triumphal entry into Prague. An Austria went Nazi. See HITLER, Page Ten

France Holds Troops Ready at Her Border

PARIS, March 12.—(AP)—Troop movements prevented Maginot line defenses facing the German border tonight were held to their posts as France took an increasingly grave view of the European crisis.

French officials, meanwhile, sought to quiet German criticism by taking a neutral attitude on Czechoslovakia.

German encroachment on Czechoslovakia, which threatened democracy on the Reich's border, the real power base because of alliances with France and Soviet Russia.

Premier Legerende Leon Blum at the same time gave up attempts to all parties and sought desperately to recreate a people's front cabinet to give the country a ministry.

His proposal to include Communists in a cabinet for the first time brought almost united disapproval from right and left groups in the chamber of deputies.

(Continued from Page One) contempt for the protests of western democrats against his "policies by force." Hitler's personal popularity probably never has been greater than since the reading of his proclamation. The union of all Germans is something which every German at heart desires, no matter how critical he may be of national socialism. That Hitler has managed to bring another 5,000,000 persons to the German fold appeared to command the respect even of his enemies. It was generally agreed here that Austria's former chancellor, Kurt Schuschnigg, made the mistake of his life by attempting to call a plebiscite on Austrian independence. Hitler's proclamation made it clear that there would be a plebiscite in Austria, to be conducted with Prussian efficiency and exactness. There was no doubt that the plebiscite would be preceded by the same sort of Nazi propaganda that resulted in overwhelming majorities for Hitler in the free city of Danzig and the Saar valley just before its return to Germany. 'AUSTRIA IS FREE' Referring to the plebiscite in his proclamation Dr. Fuehrer said: "Motorized units, infantry divisions, and 8, 2 formations on the ground, as well as the German air force in the blue sky—called by the new Nationalist government in Vienna—shall be the guarantor that now at last, within the shortest time, the possibility will be given to the Austrian people by means of a real plebiscite to shape their own future destiny. "Behind these units, however, stands the will and determination of the entire German nation. "The German troops which marched into Austria today were inducted as were other Germans by their Fuehrer's plea "to rescue suffering Austria." "Austria is free," hung on the lips of every German.

Brotherhoods Seek to Fight Rail Wage Cuts

CLEVELAND, March 12.—(AP)—Three railroad brotherhoods moved tonight to take a vigorous stand against wage cuts recommended by the Association of American Railroads at Washington. A. P. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, and David E. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Enginemen and Firemen, with headquarters in Cleveland, declared they would oppose wage cuts so far as members of their organizations were concerned. At Cincinnati, George Harrison, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks, declared a reduction would be "destructive to a recovery in business. Harrison contended savings from wage reductions would not be passed on to the public. "Railroad employees," he said, "have paid for the loss in business through unemployment and today railroad employment is below the figure for March, 1927." He estimated approximately 600, 000 workers had been laid off since the collapse of 1925. ONLY 3 DAYS OF GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY Monday—Tuesday — and Wednesday represent the final three days of "Special Activity Days," largest and only remaining extra vote offer of the entire campaign. They might well be termed "prize-winning days" because that's exactly what they can prove to be for the candidates who really take advantage of them. Never again after Wednesday night will subscriptions be as valuable towards winning one of the big prizes and those candidates who emerge from this extra vote offer in prize-winning positions may well be the ones who are declared winners on April 23.
