Burak Cevdet Akay, a Turkish soldier, was killed in action on the uneven ground near the border of Syria and Israel on Tuesday. His unit was caught in a surprise attack by Israeli forces, who seized control of key positions in the area. Despite the heavy losses, the Turkish forces managed to hold their ground and regained some territory in the subsequent counterattacks. The situation remains tense as both sides continue to dig in and prepare for further conflicts in the region.
ONLY 3 DAYS OF GOLDEN OPPORTUNITY

Monday — Tuesday — and Wednesday represent the final three days of "Special Activity Days," largest and only remaining extra vote offer of the entire campaign. They may well be termed "prize-winning days" because that's exactly what they can prove to be for the candidates who really take advantage of them. Never again after Wednesday night will subscriptions be available towards winning one of the big prizes and those candidates who emerged from this extra vote offer in prize-winning positions may well be the ones who are declared winners on April 23.

To pass up one single bet or to be satisfied with mediocrities results those next three days would be suicidal to success. Those who are eventually declared winners of the big prizes will have real reports "under the wire" before the stroke of 10 Wednesday night.
