'Gun' Bandit Captured in Jig Time

Light An Inside Picture Of Financial and Political America

From the Washington, D. C., Bureau of The Sun

WASHINGTON President Roosevelt's 1939 message to congress will be written by men who never heard the senatorial purge or his snuff in the last counting of noses. It will attempt to erase these setbacks from public memory by highlighting the dollars-and-cents aspect of national defense. It will be a flirtatious appeal to the inventor, the consumer, the laboring man.

EX-NAVY MAN ARRESTED FOR CAFÉ ROBBERY

A pistol, flashed in the face of Henry Chin, waiter at the Shang-hai cafe, 249 Burwell st., shortly before 12 o'clock last night, convinced the Chinese that the man who stood stuffing money into his pockets from the cash register meant business.

Paradise made a full confession of the robbery, and $26.72 was found on his person.

Munich may have meant a bad day for European democracies. But it may mean a good day for American business and industry.

COMPARISON—You can best measure the meaning of the Munich stunt by considering the case of Major General Mark Craig, the ordinarily snappy and far-seeing chief of the general staff of the army.
