DRAW PLANS FOR BIRTHDAY BALLS

This is the time of the year when we think of Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day—and the President's Birthday ball. W. F. (Bill) Baxter, chairman of the Birthday Ball committee for Kitsap county, today revealed that plans already are being laid for the celebration in this district. The affairs are held annually on Jan. 30, with proceeds being used for treatment of infantile paralysis victims and to finance research work about the disease. Last year, the Birthday Ball functions held throughout the county netted $1,020. Baxter has named the following as chairman of Birthday Ball celebrations in various parts of the county: Bremerton, A. H. Burnmaster; Port Orchard, Walter Bryant; Poulsbo, Barney Rindal.

HUMBLE Remarks:

By DON HUMBLE
There is a sort of poetic justice about the proposal to colonize German colonies with German refugees instead of giving the land to Mr. Hitler. We like the idea but one thing puzzles us. What is going to become of the African refugees that the German refugees supplant?

They could be sent to Hitler in exchange for the folks he wants to unload, but it might be pretty tough to convince Adolf that Negroes are "pure" Aryans.

Better yet, why not leave the refugees in Germany and move Hitler to Africa. That is the Humble Plan. Who is this fellow Hearst?

BERRY'S AIDES MAKE DEFENSE

on voice, the 72-year-old man said, "It's been hell ever since this happened."

The Kevins' testimony was confined to questions as to whether their daughter had agreed to sign a warrant for Baker's arrest. Both stuck to the story that she did.

"I told Mr. Troy (the prosecutor) that at our age Mrs. Kevin and I didn't see how we could go through with such a thing," Kevin admitted on cross examination.

"My daughter told me that Baker attacked her after the house party at Mud Bay," said Mrs. Kevin, and stuck staunchly to the story that her daughter had wanted a warrant, and that Troy would not issue it unless the Kevins joined in signing it.

against any human vent. But their closest friends, who can read between the lines and winks when the writing and winking is good, suspect that they detect a comeback and come-hither gleam in these four famous eyes.

COALITION—The G. O. P.'s triumph at the polls has brought heavy political penalties. In private post-election pow-wows strategists concede that they face a difficult dilemma in the pre-1940 period.

In their campaigns their most eminent winners stumped for drastic reforms of New Deal experiment, though, professing sympathy with the administration's far-range objectives in the social and economic fields. They promised revision of WPA, NLRB, Social Security, etc. But if the party forces the changes it promised in the next congress, it may be left in a lurch.

On the other hand, if amendment is delayed until after 1941, when they may have to bear all responsibility, a sweeping house-cleaning may antagonize millions now receiving federal handouts. They would be hitting the hands that elect them.

The best bigwig opinion favors immediate action in line with the individual candidates' platform promises—that is, coalition with anti-New Deal Democrats for a little interior redecorating. By 1940 new issues may have arisen to supply them with fresh ammunition.

Emergency Calls Don't Mean "Six Months From Now"!

The physician, the hospital, the dentist, the druggist—are entitled to the same promptness—in the payment of their accounts—as you expect from them in emergencies

WHEN emergencies arise, when tragedy impends, they are expected to respond—night or day, in fair weather or foul—and they do. But, too often, that same promptness is not shown when time for payment comes. Is that fair? They have bills to meet, too! And families to support and employes to be paid—just like the rest of us. And remember, how you pay them is known to the registrar, and how you pay the stores is known to them also—through your record at the credit bureau. To keep your credit record clear, pay all bills promptly—by the tenth or as agreed.

YOUR WILL-POWER...THE MODERN HAZARD TO YOUR NERVES

Advertisement for Camel cigarettes. Features a large illustration of a dog and a man. Text includes "BEAGLE HOUND English fox-hound in miniature. Solid and big for his inches—true beagle has the long-wearing look of the hound that can last in the chase. One of the oldest breeds in history—close to the original breed of hounds, U. S. standards specify 18 inches maximum height—any true hound color acceptable." and "HE'S GIVING HIS NERVES A REST... AND SO IS HE".

THE fizzling pace of these fast-moving times doesn't mean a thing in the life of the dog. Although his complex, high-keyed nervous system closely resembles our own, when the dog feels his nerves fire he settles down—relaxes—at the beagle bound above is doing. That is instinctive with the dog. We are not so likely to break nervous tension before it gets our nerves upset. Ambition and determination push us on and on... past the warning stage of nerve strain. Will-power silences the instinct to pause and rest. And yet jittery, ragged nerves are a distinct handicap. Don't let your nerves get that way. Learn to ease the strain occasionally. Let up—light up a Camel! It's such a pleasant way to rest your nerves—a brief recess, mellow with the pleasure of Camel's mildness and ripe, rich taste. Yes, no wonder smokers say Camel's costlier tobaccos are so soothing to the nerves.

"I ease off from time to time, to give my nerves welcome rests. I let up and light up a Camel.", and "AN ANALYTICAL CHEMIST'S job is intensely nerve straining. No wonder so many of these men break nerve tension often by letting up—lighting up a Camel." and "DID YOU KNOW?—that cigarette tobacco is dried for the market, or "cured" by several general methods, which include air-cured and fire-cured? Not all cigarettes can be made from the choicest tobacco, the fine top grades—there isn't enough of it available! Therefore it is important to know that Camel cigarettes are a matchless blend of finer, MORE EXPENSIVE TOBACCOS—Turkish and Domestic."
