Mother Volunteers As Son, 18, Enlists

PHILADELPHIA (UP)—Mrs. Beatie Solomon is awaiting the U. S. army's call to active duty.

When her son, Harold 18, went to army headquarters here to enlist, she accompanied him. The youth was accepted, and Mrs. Solomon stepped before Lt.-Col. Frederick Schoenfeld, officer-in-charge.

"Can I be of service?" asked Col. Schoenfeld.

"I want to enlist, too," said Mrs. Solomon. "I could drive an ambulance, or serve in any other corps where women could be accepted."
