To the City Commissioners:

Dear Homer, Hank and Cliff: How about some new street signs? With all the new people in town, most of them have to use a compass to find their way around. CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To Newspaper Readers:

Dear Subscribers: This is National Newspaper Week. How about three rahs and a tiger for the kid who trudges around to your house six times a week, rain or shine, and dumps off the day's news and pictures? CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To the County Draft Board:

Dear Appointees: Conscripting men for the army, especially those who don't want to be conscripted, is a very sour duty. Never lose sight of the fact that Joe Gotrocks will make just as good a soldier as Peter Penniless.

CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To Capt. Alex M. Peabody:

Dear Black Ball Boss: We appreciate your placing in service a third boat between Bremerton and Seattle. But the service a time roat occaeen premerion and seature. But the Kehloken is a trifle slow for the run. Seems that dad used to cross the sound in his dugout war cance just about as fast.

CHIEF KITSAP. JR.

To Bremerton Motorists:

Dear Fellow Drivers: It's mighty hard to remember those "no left turn" intersections on Pacific ave. at Burwell st. and at 4th st., and a lot of us still are turning those cor-ners according to the habits of years. But we'll learn soon -even if we lose a few fenders in the process

CHIEF KITSAP, JR.,

To the Ladies:

Dear Better Halves: We have always practiced that gallantry, "Ladies First," but there are times when you should take your turn with us men folks. Waiting for a fountain seat at lunch time is one. Maybe the patient gent at whom you cast a sly glance as you slip into the seat has to punch a CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To the Deer Hunters:

Dear Sportsmen: Don't shoot until you see it move; it might be a WPA worker. CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To a Certain Tavern Owner:

Dear Sir: There is a girl serving beer in your place who is less than 21 years old. Why? We thought the sign on the door said "No Minors Allowed." CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To Elks Lodge Members:

Dear Friends: We note that you're making real progress on a fund to purchase an iron lung for Kitsap county. When the respirator is finally obtained you'll have done a genuine service to humanity. If it saves only one life you should feel amply rewarded for your efforts.

CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To the Voters:

Dear Folks: Have you read, and do you understand, and do you know how you're going to vote on the initiatives and referendums which will appear or the November ballot? That's nothing—neither do we. CHIEF KITSAP, JR.

To Truck Drivers:

Dear Teamsters: While you're loading and unloading, we don't complain about your big trucks blocking various narrow streets and alleys. But when your vehicles distribute traffic on thoroughfares while you shoot the breeze nearby, we grow a little impatient. Why not have a little more consideration for other drivers? CHIEF KITSAP, JR. by, we grow a little impatient. Wh consideration for other drivers?

To Willkieites and Rooseveltians:

As we swing into the last weeks of a rather extraordinary campaign, let's keep good-natured and fair-minded in the arguments. After all, on Nov. 5 the country is going to elect a sincere, good "American, which ever party wins, and the losing side, as always in the past, on the day after will say, "He's our president-elect, we'll support him.
