

Of all acts of man, repentance is the most divine. The greatest of all faults is to be conscious of none.—Carlyle.

THE BREMERTON SUN stands for those principles which it regards as beneficial to the welfare of the community, for honest journalism in news and editorial columns.

The Bremerton Sun

Published every day except Sunday by The Bremerton Sun Publishing Co., 444 Fourth Street, Bremerton, Wash. Telephone 7-1111.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By carrier, 40 cents per month. By mail, in the state of Washington, 40 cents per month, 75 cents for three months, $1.25 for six months and $2.00 for one year, payable in advance.

OFFICIAL NEWSPAPER, THE CITY OF BREMERTON The Bremerton Sun will not assume financial responsibility for any errors which may appear in advertisements published in its columns.

To Tavern Operators: Dear Dispensers: If you ever suspect one of your patrons might be a minor, here's a way to find out.

To All Motorists: Dear Folks: In the past week we've talked to no less than a dozen men who are employed on the navy yard's night shift.

To the Legion Ambulance Thief: Dear Culprit: Yours was a most despicable offense against common decency and against those who contribute each year toward maintenance of free ambulance service here.

To Jupiter Pluvius: Dear Rainmaker: You seem to be about as far behind in your schedule as A. Hitler is. Maybe that's why we experienced those hit-rains this week.

To Wendell Willkie: Dear Candidate: Somebody told us the other day that a little humor was good for election campaigns.

To the Radio Networks: Dear Broadcasters: What this country needs, even worse than the five-cent mug of beer, is more music and less verbiage on the radio wave-lengths.

To Whom It May Concern: Gentlemen: A few months ago a fellow by the name of Dick Bolton was arrested and charged with stealing from this case.

To Admiral Richardson: Dear Visitor: Welcome to Bremerton. We hope your stay here is pleasant and you like our town.

To Our Draftable Citizens: Dear Men: You're in the army now, you're not behind the plow; you'll never get rich...

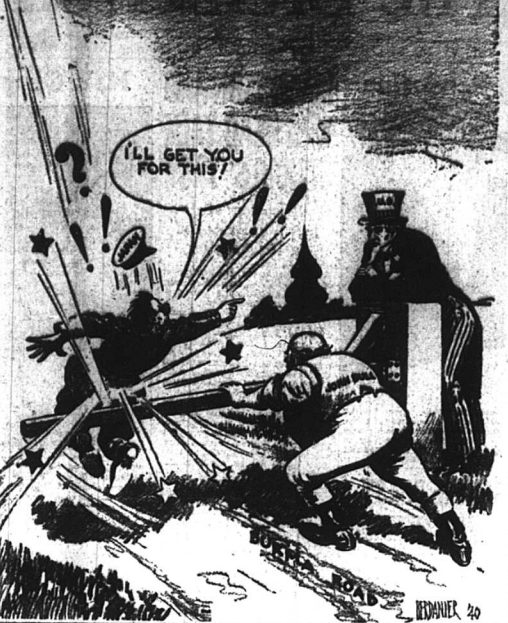

To Draft Registrars: Dear Folks: How's that writer's cramp? Seriously, though, we take our hat off to you for a grand job.

IN HOLLYWOOD

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 19.—Dear Staff: I'm puzzled by the strange case of Greta Garbo. It's been almost a year since her last screen appearance, in "Ninotchka."

RED RYDER: IF WE CAN'T GIVE HIM THE NIGHT WITH HIM... SHANE HAS THE EVIDENCE: SHANE'S MURDER WAS A BLOOD-BATH... HANDLE WHEN THEY HEAR SHANE'S VOICE.

Innocent Bystander?

The 'Round Townier' By The Staff

Getting around with the 'Round Townier: Ralph Purcell, the D.A., admitting he'll be married Nov. 10 to an Olympic girl—George Booth, Charley Mearns and Capt. Emsler, all successful deer hunters.

LOOKING FOR A HUSBAND: By the way, if some of you women are looking for husbands, we would advise that you go to Nevada, there are 138 unmarried men between ages 25 to 24 for every 100 unmarried women aged 20 to 29.

TEN DAYS' WORK: The long-awaited picture-story about Bremerton appears in the new issue of Life Magazine.

Dear Boss: Understand RKO officials had to use big-brother arguments to keep love-struck Loretta Ball from leaving cast to meet the coming performance of 'Destiny'.

Dear Men: You're in the army now, you're not behind the plow; you'll never get rich...

Dear Folks: How's that writer's cramp? Seriously, though, we take our hat off to you for a grand job.

he observed that his picture-story had been sadly "cut" by the editors. We've submitted column-length yarns, too, and had them boiled into two paragraphs by our editors.

FROM A YOUNG WRITER: I'm not often that the 'Round Townier' reprints essays from promising young journalists, but today we're obliged to do so.

The world is not a zoo, and we are the animals in it. To me, some people seem like foxes, daring and cunning, yet willing to retreat when defeated.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

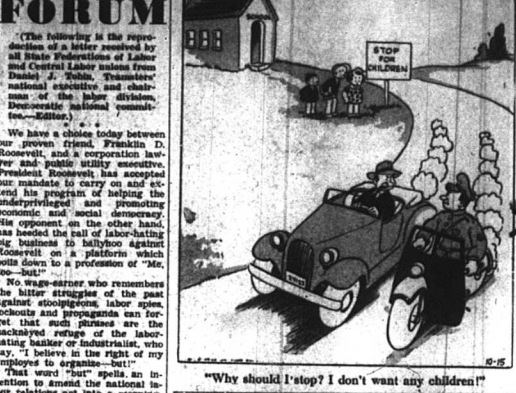

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Hold Everything... by Josh

"What should I stop? I don't want any children!"

LARCHWOOD MYSTERY

By RUTH DEWEY GROVES. Jim Frost, newspaper man, arrives on Long Island from Buenos Aires to marry Loretta Harding.

He knows who I am and he will tell me. And if we don't find him, I'll tell you where he is. I'll tell you where he is. I'll tell you where he is.

LETTERS

ANSWERS CRITICISM: Editor, The Sun: An editorial in the October 12 issue of one of our local papers called for a national campaign to organize a vigorous campaign for the reelection of President Roosevelt.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.

Mr. Roosevelt has made mistakes. The city man does not like to see a general strike stop only a precedent, not by an article in our Constitution as so aptly summarized.