CONGRESSIONAL

NATIONAL DEFENSE PROGRAM NOW GOING ON

The Proprietor's Getting Sore

The Bremerton Sun

A. F. OTTEVAE

inerton, Wammiguon, usus see.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES: By carrier, 25 cents; per menth, it le Kitasp county, $1.50 per year; in state of Washington, and an extra per county, $4.50 per year; in state of Washington, and county, $4.50 cents per month, $7.50 cents for three months, $4.50 for one year, payable in advance. Outside state, $7.50 cents for one month, $2.75 for the large month, $4.75 for all the states, $7.50 cents for one month, $2.75 for the large month, $4.75 for all the states, $7.50 cents for the second $4.75 for the large month, $4.75 for the lar $1.20 advertising representative, Cumman, T. The Audit Bureau of Circulations and the United Pres

TOTAL NEWSPAPER, THE CITY OF BREM

The Bremerton Sun will not assume financial responsibility for any which may appear in advertisements published in its columns ose instances where the paper is at fault, it will reprint that pare advertisement in which the typographical mistake occurs.

Meanwhile, Democracy Functions

Some people have their leyes so firmly fixed on some doom they see far on ahead waiting for democracy, that they overlook the fact that it's functioning right here and now. When the draft act was passed last year, it was theroughly debated for months. Every argument for it and against it was given full play time and again. Then, after the most complete kind of discussion, public and private, official and unofficial the day described.

most compete kind of discussion, public and private, official and unofficial, the duly elected representatives of the people passed it by a broad margin.

If the passage of that act, revolutionary departure as it was from traditional American principles, did not represent the will of the American people, in what possible way could that will have been better expressed?

Similarly, the lend-lease bill. Since the draft act of last similarly, the lend-lease bill. Since the draft act of last year, there has been a congressional election. A good share of the senators and representatives now on the floor have been to their constituencies for acceptance or rejection. New members were elected by people who had one eye on European developments and the ways in which they might affect the U. S. Now comes lend-lease bill. w comes lend-lease bill.

No one can say both sides of this proposed legislation

No one can say both sides of this proposed legislation have not had every conceivable opportunity to present their cases. A continual parade of witnesses, for and against, qualified and unqualified, expert and inexpert, statistical and emotional, has passed through the committee rooms of both house and senate. Debate on the floors of both chambers has been exhaustive. Every conceivable scrap of information, every imaginable point of view, have been spread publicly before the legislators and the country.

The president, apparently feeling the criticism that followed last year's destroyer transfer, for which he did not go to congress for authority, appears to have made an especial point of keeping out of this pending legislation. Amendments have been proposed, argued, and some have been accepted. The people, through letters to congress and the newspapers. have had their direct say, aside from the official debate.

Soon the lease-lend bill will pass, or it will not pass.

Free Italy Organizes

Just as fragments of the French, Norse, Dutch and other populations temporarily under the Nazi hee lawe organized as bodies of freemen in exile, so now they are joined by free Italy" movement.

Liberty has been preserved before in this manner, not once but many times. Driven from her home, she does not die, but takes up temporary quarters elsewhere, waiting patiently the day when she can return to her own. This she will do, some day, in every one of the countries from which she has been driven by force, internal or external.

It is especially appropriate to see a "Free Italy" movement, for no country made a more gallant struggle for national independence and freedom.

IN HOLLYWOOD

By JIMMIE FIDLER

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 26.—Warners is snapping at George Brent, who is refusing to ink a new termer. Brent says it is great to the study of the state of th

Il ago to
I survey, come summer ginia Weidler is taking and dancing leasons, on rom'se that if she's good,
t a picture with a real ity ... Ha! That film

Round town with the Round Towner: Mrs. V. P.
Pedersen on the telephone—Mrs. L. N. Hein reading the evening paper—Bad Kelly visiting with Keely Ward in the latter's grocery—try Williams renew, ing acquaintanceships around town—Hans Heideman greeting a friend—Wesley Seely driving homeward—Verse Andt buys at Kerra—Barman Johnson entering his 13th at home—Hichard Giddens head of for Rocky Point—Bernard Lee talking about the war—C. W. Winkier making a purchase.

first visit in weeks to the studio pipls who dress like queens—then publicity department, and was spoil the illusion by chewing gum publicity department, and was spoil the illusion by chewing gum aleiesiay; job. Today, with a debation of the boys, how you're an important actreas, you will be considered to the constance of the boys, how the constance of the cons turn was cerves the many.

THE WHY OF BOCK BEER

Seems the natives thereof deserve the credit for or first making, a tasty brew from the muck they cleansed out of their beer vata each spring. For which this department is duly gateful.

Comment

The Round Towner By The Staff

RECOGNITION FROM F. D. R.

At long last, recognition has come to the hundreds of men and women who served the nation last Cct.

16 on draft registration day.

A member of one of Bremerton's registration.

A member of one of Bremerton's registration at the sentence—and then have been a ceived. Signed by Draft Director Dykstra for F. I. St.

at R., the certificate asy: "The president of the U. 8.

awardn's-like certificate in recognition of services rendered to the nation on registration day. Oct. 18.

1840:

All of the registration officers and clerks are related to the registration of the combat o

By FRED HARMAN

Capital

By PETER EDSO SHINGTON, Feb. 26 cores are all added u

PRINTER VINDICATED

These two memorandums were proudly displayed the promise of the property of the property of the property of the promise years of the property of

THE WHY OF BOCK BEER
In springtime our fancy turns to bock beer. And by making a peril-beset and artifous trip to the dictionary, we learned that the name bock is a corruption of the original name "einbecker bier" which in turn was derived from the town of Einbeck in Ger-

Hold Everything by Josh

"Let's stick around and see how this comes out."

Resissee: Bilake, factory girt, mad Jerry Themas, dance-through the sale to tell him when the same of the same of litered.

"I think that she lied to us! She's ith that radio crooner!" Tom sached for his coat and hat. "I'm oing to find her and bring her when the clock struck, he looked without the presented down at the upper struck, he looked without the presented down at the upper struck, and the looked with the presented down at the looked with looked wi

AS THESE thoughts were going through her head, Casper Garthrough her head, Casper Gardenached her and offered