

LEGISLATURE'S HEAD-ON AUTO SESS. ENDS AFTER 62 DAYS

Gov. Langlie Thanks Solons for 'Splendid Work'

OLYMPIA, March 15.—(UP)—The Washington legislature adjourned sine die today, after running exactly two days past the legal 60-day limit. Clocks had been stopped at 11:32 a. m. Thursday. The senate quit work at exactly the same hour today and adjourned on the 62nd day.

NOTICE LANGLIE

Let us be glad, Gov. Victor A. Meyer, the senate adjourned. I am glad to be able to go home to my family. I am glad to be able to go home to my family.

The Official Honey Girl

Hendersen Bay Man Is Victim; Yard Workers Hurt

J. P. Rohrer, superintendent of the Northern Pacific railway signal service in Tacoma, died in Douglas hospital this morning as the result of injuries suffered in a hand-on collision near Gig Harbor at 6:50 a. m. today.

Skilled Men Requested to Register

Local plans for the national registration of skilled workers, both employed and unemployed, were announced today by Jack Chambers, head of the registration office in the Washington State Employment Service.

EARLY CLASH FOR RESEEN BALKAN AREA

R. A. F. and Nazi Air Force Exchange Hard Blows

Great Britain's imperial army of the Nile was believed today to be ready for action on the Greek front—and possibly against Italy's formations on any battlefield. Adolf Hitler picks in the Mediterranean.

Robert Meyer, Pioneer, Dies

Robert E. Meyer, 56, a Kitsap county pioneer, died Thursday evening at his home in Bremerton.

Divorce Is Granted To Betty Compton

KEY WEST, Fla., March 15.—(UP)—Judge Arthur Gomez today granted Betty Compton a divorce from former mayor James J. Walker of New York and granted her the right to resume the name which she used on the musical comedy stage.

RECORD IS SET BY DRY SPELL

A new record March dry spell was set today when Bremerton experienced its 14th consecutive day without rain.

U. S., Britain Near Approval of Leases

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—The United States and Great Britain are near agreement on the proposed lease of military bases to the United States.

K. of C. Banquet Sunday Celebrates St. Patrick's Day

Patrician and where is the wintress gone? When the local Knights of Columbus entertain here tomorrow night with a banquet honoring St. Patrick, the main speaker will be a gentleman named English!

Bremerton Sketches

By WILL DANCH

Harry Ballou, First Newsboy Of Bremerton, Expires at 65

Harry Ballou, 65, known as Bremerton's first newsboy, died today. The elderly figure apparently succumbed at his little fifth street shop and residence some time Wednesday night. He was found lying on the floor yesterday evening when police were summoned to break into the quarters after Ballou hadn't been seen for a couple of days.

Feats of Magic to Be Shown At Benefit Show This Evening

Almost anything is likely to happen this evening as a company of visiting magicians pull their tricks at the British American Ambulance Corps benefit show in the high school auditorium.

SEVEN BILLIONS WAR AID VOTED

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—A house appropriation sub-committee approved President Roosevelt's $7,000,000,000 war-aid request today, only a matter of hours before he talks to the nation and the world on his general plans for spending the money to help Britain and other nations fight the Axis.

Oregon Senate Kills Sales Tax Measure

SALAS, March 15.—(UP)—The Oregon senate today killed the house-approved sales tax bill by a vote of 6 to 5.

Cargo Ship Due Here

S. S. Elms of the Consolidated and Olympic Lines is expected to arrive at the navy yard sometime today. The ship remains here only for several hours to discharge cargo.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday; gentle rain or drizzle off shore and inland waters.

AUTO INDUSTRY TO AID DEFENSE

DETROIT, March 15.—(UP)—The automobile industry, vital source for mass production of defense needs, is running well ahead of schedule and will have its first airplane engine plant in production by April 15, it was disclosed today.

Steamer Kennedy's Ex-Master Expires

Capt. William E. Mitchell, 60, died yesterday in Seattle. At one time he was general manager of the Kitsap County Transportation Co.

4 DRIVERS ARE FINED BY COURT

Max Barrett, 1117 Park ave., and Paul W. Shony marine at 110 and 124 in justice court today on separate charges growing out of auto accidents.

Many to Register Under U. S. Scheme

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—Defense officials predicted that between 1,000,000 and 1,500,000 unemployed and skilled workers would begin registering today for national defense jobs in a program designed to meet a growing shortage of skilled labor.

Retail Trade Rising

VIEWPOINT, March 15.—Retail trade rose a further moderate rate this week despite the fact that a quiet buying occasion followed by the winter weather. Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., reported today.

Tides for Sunday

First low—12:38 a. m., 2.4 ft.; first high—6:35 a. m., 12.0 ft.; second low—1:14 p. m., 0.9 ft.; second high—7:38 p. m., 11.1 ft.

Harry Ballou, First Newsboy Of Bremerton, Expires at 65

Harry Ballou, 65, known as Bremerton's first newsboy, died today. The elderly figure apparently succumbed at his little fifth street shop and residence some time Wednesday night.

Feats of Magic to Be Shown At Benefit Show This Evening

Almost anything is likely to happen this evening as a company of visiting magicians pull their tricks at the British American Ambulance Corps benefit show in the high school auditorium.

SEVEN BILLIONS WAR AID VOTED

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—A house appropriation sub-committee approved President Roosevelt's $7,000,000,000 war-aid request today, only a matter of hours before he talks to the nation and the world on his general plans for spending the money to help Britain and other nations fight the Axis.

Oregon Senate Kills Sales Tax Measure

SALAS, March 15.—(UP)—The Oregon senate today killed the house-approved sales tax bill by a vote of 6 to 5.

THE WEATHER

Fair tonight and Sunday; gentle rain or drizzle off shore and inland waters.

Robert Meyer, Pioneer, Dies

Robert E. Meyer, 56, a Kitsap county pioneer, died Thursday evening at his home in Bremerton.

Divorce Is Granted To Betty Compton

KEY WEST, Fla., March 15.—(UP)—Judge Arthur Gomez today granted Betty Compton a divorce from former mayor James J. Walker of New York and granted her the right to resume the name which she used on the musical comedy stage.

RECORD IS SET BY DRY SPELL

A new record March dry spell was set today when Bremerton experienced its 14th consecutive day without rain.

U. S., Britain Near Approval of Leases

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—The United States and Great Britain are near agreement on the proposed lease of military bases to the United States.

K. of C. Banquet Sunday Celebrates St. Patrick's Day

Patrician and where is the wintress gone? When the local Knights of Columbus entertain here tomorrow night with a banquet honoring St. Patrick, the main speaker will be a gentleman named English!

Divorce Is Granted To Betty Compton

KEY WEST, Fla., March 15.—(UP)—Judge Arthur Gomez today granted Betty Compton a divorce from former mayor James J. Walker of New York and granted her the right to resume the name which she used on the musical comedy stage.

RECORD IS SET BY DRY SPELL

A new record March dry spell was set today when Bremerton experienced its 14th consecutive day without rain.

U. S., Britain Near Approval of Leases

WASHINGTON, March 15.—(UP)—The United States and Great Britain are near agreement on the proposed lease of military bases to the United States.

K. of C. Banquet Sunday Celebrates St. Patrick's Day

Patrician and where is the wintress gone? When the local Knights of Columbus entertain here tomorrow night with a banquet honoring St. Patrick, the main speaker will be a gentleman named English!

Bremerton Sketches

By WILL DANCH