Observe Baptism At First Christian

The transformed life is the subject of the sermon which will be delivered tomorrow morning in the First Christian church by Rev. Fred Opperman, pastor.

His evening theme will be "Bible Baptism." The pastor will lead the congregational singing at the evening service, which will be followed by the ordinance of Christian Baptism.

Alyse Judd will lead the evening Youth Fellowship hour.

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan" Plays At Roxy Sunday

One of the finest casts ever assembled in what Hollywood regards as one of the finest pictures produced in recent years is being shown at the Roxy Theater, where "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" will start, here on Saturday night. The picture, which is being shown in the picture house, is a comedy which dares to break every rule of film-making, even as it achieves a high level of entertainment.

According to advance report, "Here Comes Mr. Jordan" is a story never told on the screen before, a comedy which dares to break every rule of film-making, even as it achieves a high level of entertainment.

Montgomery is seen as a fellow named Joe, a likeable guy with a sense of humor who is obsessed with one overblowing ambition. In pursuit of that ambition he is helped by sympathetic, kindly, dignified Mr. Jordan, and by Mr. Jordan's unique understanding of problems and of their solutions.

"Elsey Queen and the Perfect Crime" starring Ralph Bellamy and Margaret Lindsay, is the second half of this show.
