

Civil Defense Firemen Start Drills Monday

Bremerton civilians defense headquarters announced today a training course for all auxiliary firemen will start at 10 a.m. Monday May 18.

Being shift and night workers who are enrolled as auxiliary firemen will report to their respective stations for drill from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. Others will attend the classes from 7 to 9 p.m.

Drills will be held two hours weekly, according to Fire Capt. Ted Tillet, assigned to civilian defense training. The entire course will include 34 hours of study.

Additional auxiliary firemen are needed in all districts. It was announced, and they are asked to register at the defense headquarters office, second floor, city hall.

Firemen in defense districts Nos. 1, 2, 3 and 4 will drill at No. 1 fire station, 317 Pacific avenue. The schedule: District No. 1, Mondays; District No. 2, Tuesdays; District No. 3, Wednesdays; District No. 4, Thursdays.

Current average hourly earnings vary widely between industries but on the average are the highest ever paid, according to the department of commerce.

Youth Says He'd Gladly Serve Under Nazi Flag

CLEVELAND, May 14.—(UP)—Donald Kistner, 20, who admitted shooting the engineer of a speeding freight train carrying war materials, said today that he would like to do it again "to help the Germans."

"I was trying to interrupt the flow of war materials to help the German cause," he said. "If I could, I would go down and shoot at the train again. I would never go in the U. S. army, but I'd be glad to serve under the German flag."

Kistner, 20, of F. J. Dwyer, 52, the engineer of a New York Central train, as it passed through Elyria last Saturday. Dwyer was hit in the head but was able to drive the train 25 miles to Sandusky, 25 to retrace.

Dean Kistner, the boy's father, said: "My son had some funny ideas, but I never dreamed anything like this would happen. He is a boying war, bonds every week."

The youth was charged with sabotage and assault.

Middle-West 'Fully Aroused,' Says Bard

EVANSTON, Ill., May 14.—(UP)—Ralph A. Bard, assistant commander in chief of the American Legion, said today that the middle west, all isolationism destroyed, is "fully aroused" now and that it will go to the aid of the soldiers, and its sailors—as the Jap and the Nazi will learn—"will be terrible in their wrath."

Three Men Escape Portland Police in Hall of Gunfire

PORTLAND, May 14.—(UP)—Three men suspected of criminality attacking two 37-year-old Bl. John girls school Portland police early today after a running gun battle which ended when the trio abandoned a stolen automobile and climbed on a wooded tract near outskirts of the city. Officers said the men refused to stop the car at their command and raced toward the city's outskirts. Police fired several shots, which were returned by occupants of the machine.

Near the outskirts of the city, the trio abandoned the car and fled into wooded country. Officers said they found a .22-caliber automatic revolver and a large automatic revolver and a large pocket knife in the machine.

More Japs Moving
SAN FRANCISCO, May 14.—(UP)—The army today ordered evacuation of Japanese from five counties of northwestern Oregon and large areas of the Sacramento and Imperial valleys of California.

Nine Convoys Sunk, Nazis Claim
BERLIN, May 14.—(UP)—German broadcast reported by United Press in New York—special communique said today that German submarines, attacking a British convoy in the north Atlantic, sank nine ships totaling 51,000 tons and damaged a tenth.

Nine Fledgling Pilots Solo

Every day this type of formation is enacted over the west coast by primary students of the west coast air corps training center. In their Ryan primary trainers, nine of Uncle Sam's most recent aviation cadets pilot their planes in right school. In a few weeks the cadets will be on their way to fighter and larger ships. In a few months they will receive their wings as second lieutenants and nine more young Americans will have added their strength and skill to the defense of Democracy.
