

Must Reduce Purchasing Power—Jones

EVANSTON, Ill., June 17. — (UP) — Secretary of Commerce James H. Jones said yesterday that other measures besides price control must be found to "put a brake on surplus consumer purchasing power."

...of Northwestern University's technological institute, said that without additional anti-inflation measures "we cannot avoid a general increase in the cost of living, which will be hard to adjust after the emergency."

New Stamp Due

WASHINGTON, June 17. — (UP) — The maritime commission announced today that a new 5-cent postage stamp, bearing the maritime eagle, will go on sale in post-offices on July 4.

Landlords to Seek Rent Order Revision

SEATTLE, June 17. — (UP) — A meeting of the Seattle apartment house association last night urged united effort to obtain modification of the order putting all rents back to the level of April 1, 1941.

Deny Applications From Broadcasters

WASHINGTON, June 17. — (UP) — Applications for 23 new standard broadcasting stations and 17 frequency modulation stations were dismissed without prejudice today by the federal communications commission.

Women, Boys Do Part for New Zealand's Defense
Down in New Zealand women and boys alike fall in line to contribute to their nation's war effort. At top members of the Women's Auxiliary Air Force are shown on parade at an unadorned Royal New Zealand Air Force station while at bottom are airmen of the future, schoolboy members of an air training corps drilling during their work in barracks at King's College, near Auckland.

Commander Of Kodiak Base Lauds Scouts

NAVAL AIR STATION, Kodiak, Alaska, June 17. — The shadow of war has stretched across the Alaskan chain and they are no longer here — but Kodiak's members will the names and faces of the Boy Scouts of Troop 628, and in a sense it wishes they were here again.

Hospital Is Willed $500,000 in Lands

SPOKANE, June 17. — (UP) — A will filed in superior court yesterday gave the Spokane Deaconess hospital full ownership of about $500,000 worth of Spokane city and county real estate.

Would Take Japs' Voting Franchise

SAN FRANCISCO, June 17. — (UP) — A suit to disfranchise 2,600 San Francisco Japanese voters on grounds they are subjects of Emperor Hirohito today was scheduled for hearing in federal court June 26.

Claim Dukar to Be German Sub Base

LONDON, June 17. — Radio Moscow, quoting advice from Leningrad and Ankara, said yesterday Germany was secretly constructing submarine bases at the French West African port of Dakar.

Claim Dukar to Be German Sub Base

LONDON, June 17. — Radio Moscow, quoting advice from Leningrad and Ankara, said yesterday Germany was secretly constructing submarine bases at the French West African port of Dakar.

NOTICE!

That KEN LARKIN, formerly with The Service Barber Shop is now located at the MODERNE, 517 Fourth st. Thanking you for your past patronage.

Charge Firm Buying 'Hot Oil' Supplies

WASHINGTON, June 17. — (UP) — A memorandum from Petroleum Coordinator Harold L. Ickes, made public by the senate committee investigating the war program, disclosed today that the Douglas Oil & Refining Co., Los Angeles, had been accused of purchasing large quantities of oil.

Air Corps Reserve Taking Older Men

WASHINGTON, June 17. — (UP) — Men between 37 and 45 years old who have been selected by the civil aeronautics administration for civilian pilot training now may join the army air force auxiliary reserve.