

Lindbergh's Un

[FROM THE MILWA

THE raising of the racial issue by Charles A. Lindbergh in his Des Moines, Iowa, speech is the most unfortunate happening that has occurred in the United States since the present tense international situation developed.

Mr. Lindbergh said that "the three most important groups which have been pressing this country toward war are the British, the Jewish and the Roosevelt administration."

The assertion that the Jews are pressing this country into war is unwise, unpatriotic and un-American.

This astonishing statement, at total variance with the fact, is in nowise softened by Mr. Lindbergh's condemnation further on in his speech of the atrocities committed against the Jews by the Nazis in Germany.
