FOUR POLITICS PROFESSORS ENGAGED IN WRITING BOOKS

C. R. Erdman Jr., L. H. Evans, W. S. Myers and H. H. Sprout Will Finish Works Soon.

Four new books in the field of politics are now being written by Professors Charles R. Erdman Jr., Luther H. Evans, William S. Myers and Harold H. Sprout.

Professor Erdman's book is "A Study of the Present Constitution of New Jersey," dealing with past movements for reform and analyzing the needed changes. In length between 75 to 100 pages, it will be published next April or May.

"The Government of the Virgin Islands of the United States" is the title of the book now being written by Professor Evans and which he hopes to have completed within a few months.

Now in the hands of the publishers, Professor Myers' "Life of General McClellan" will appear some time next spring, the author at present being engaged in reading over the proof.

"American Foreign Policies" is the name of Professor Sprout's volume. This is a topical analysis and general treatise of the subject, designed for use as a text book in history and politics courses on American diplomatic history and foreign policies. It is now about four-fifths done and will go to press next summer, being published by Henry Holt & Co. in the American Political Science Series edited by Professor Edward S. Corwin.

PRINCETON HOCKEY SQUADS HOLD INITIAL DRILL IN RINK

terial from last year's Varsity and Freshman sextets, and the following men are making bids for positions on the team. 1934: Conover, Gardner, Green, Hinman, Kammer, Lane, Poole, Thouron, Tiers; 1935: Cathles, Crane, Flynn, Fox, Minard, Osborne, Stephens, Walker; 1936: Baker, Clarke, Creighton, Crow, Davis, Fentress, Gregory, Holsapple, Lawson, Gilbert Lea, J. T. Lea, McPherson, Metcalf, Preston, Ridder, Savage, Thieriot, Vanderpool, Willis and Wister.

Forty-seven men have signed up for Freshman hockey, and, though the squad is not as large as last year's, there are a number of men on the following list of players who are expected to show promise: Barrett, Beltaire, Brown, Cook, Cutler, Dawbarn, Denison, Dumper, Elkins, Fahnestock, Fales, Frazer, Gensler, Hart, Hedrick, Lauritzen, Le Brecht, Leventritt, Kennedy, McAlpin, Maxwell, Metcalf, Oelsner, Otis, Peabody, Poole, Potter, Pyne, Rawls, Robie, Rockwell, Sadler, Sargent, Sloan, Scott, Stollenwerck, Strater, Stuart, Swift, Sylvester, Thompson, Truesdale, Upham, Winter, Wicks, Wood and Young.

MRS. EINSTEIN UNDISTURBED BY PROPERTY CONFISCATION

Mrs. Albert Einstein seemed undisturbed by the news of the Nazi order for the confiscation of the Einstein property in Germany when interviewed yesterday. Her husband was not available for comment.

The wife of the famous scientist refused to comment on the loss, indicating that she had expected such a step by the Hitler government for some time. "We know it," was her only comment when informed of the news from Germany. Dr. Walter Mayer, assistant to Professor Einstein, also seemed unalarmed and said that the property confiscated was of small value.

Geology Club to Meet Tomorrow

The meeting of the Geology Club originally scheduled to take place in Room 220 Guyot Hall at 8, has been postponed until tomorrow night at the same time and place.
