FAMOUS BOOKS BURN ON PYRE IN GERMANY

Goebbels Asserts Period of Jewish Intellectualism Is Ended.

BERLIN. (AP). Books of Helen Keller, Franz Boas and Jack London as well as hundreds of German authors went up in smoke thruout Germany. University men and women, pronouncing judgment on world literature considered as contravening German spirit, started huge bonfires of the volumes shortly before midnight.

Dr. Joseph Goebbels, minister of propoganda, pronounced the government's blessings and declared that "the period of Jewish intellectualism now has ended." The weird glow illuminated opera square opposite Berlin university as the students, garbed in the picturesque costumes of their fraternities, the nazi brown or the steel helmet grey, threw a thousand torches on the pyre, then seized the books from trucks and hurled them into the blaze amid cheers.

The names of German writers such as Heinrich Mann, Emil Ludwig, Erich Remarque, Theodor Wolff and George Bernhard were read out as their writings were consigned to the fire. Ludwig and Remarque were especially booed by the vast crowd of spectators. The names of foreign authors on the proscription list, however, were not mentioned.

Dr. Goebbels declared "as you had the right to destroy the books, you had the duty to support the government. The fire signals to the entire world that the November revolutionaries have sunk to earth and a new spirit has arisen." He pleaded for the students to recognize as comrades men in all walks of life as a sign to the world that Germany is completely united.

World war veterans with specific injuries has been deeper than was originally intended. The regulations and schedules in this respect will, therefore, be reviewed so as to effect more equitable levels of payment. Careful study also will be made of the other regulations and their effects.

"By reason of the burden incident to rerating and in order that undue hardship will not be imposed upon veterans in their application for adjudication of their cases, regional offices of the veterans' administration will not be closed as has been reported, except where it has been clearly demonstrated that regional facilities are not necessary.

"It is not contemplated that government hospitals will be closed pending a careful, studious survey of the entire hospital situation. This, of necessity, will require considerable time."

65,000 JEWS JOINED IN NEW YORK PARADE

Giant Demonstration Staged in Protest to Adminis- tration of Hitler.

NEW YORK. (AP). One of the greatest parades New York has ever sen, its participants estimated by police to number 65,000 marched from Madison square to the battery to protest anti-semitism in Germany. The route was a good three miles but so vast was the procession that units still were forming in line at Madison square, the starting point, when the vanguard, headed by General O'Ryan, disbanded at the battery and listened to speeches.

Bystanders stood seven deep on the sidewalks along Fifth ave. and lower Broadway. Showers of confetti floated down from office buildings and streamers of ticker tape waved from the windows of the financial district in scenes reminiscent of the armistice. The only untoward incident reported to police was the dropping of several
