INTERESTING EVENTS OF THE WEEK AMONG RESIDENTS OF KANAB

Mrs. Frank Robertson and two children of Los Angeles, California, arrived in Kanab Saturday to visit her folks, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton McAllister and Mrs. Susie Robinson went to St. George last Friday.

Mrs. Minnie Adams, who has been living in Midvale during the winter, has returned to make her home there during the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pierce, Glen Pratt, and Vern Olsen left for Provo Wednesday. Miss Norma Riggs accompanied them as far as Salina.

Mrs. Arlington Spillsbury and children of Cedar City came Tuesday to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adolphe Young.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Hollywood, California were guests of Dr. and Mrs. G. R. Aiken in Kanab last week end. Mr. Miller is a camera man and is interested in making his residents in Kanab.

Art Brown, assistant chief ranger of Grand Canyon national park, arrived in Kanab Wednesday as representative of the national park service in the annual Kaibah deer count which will last about two weeks.

Junior boys baseball team has been organized and will start workouts next week.

Modern Cash lost to Monroe by two points in an extra period at the Circleville tournament Saturday.

Ladies Literary League of Kanab was held at the home of Mrs. Neaf Hamblin last week. The topic was underground caverns, given by Mrs. Elmer Jackson. Miss Kay Heaton gave an account of her trip to Carls Bad Caverns, and current events were given by Mrs. Hamblin, with interesting discussion during refreshments.

Mrs. Duncan Findlay and small son returned Saturday from Hatch after a two week's visit with her parents in that town.

The mothers of the play school met last Friday at the library building. Thirteen were present and the club voted to join the National Mothers Club association. They are a branch of the Gene V Holland club of Utah.

Word was received this week by G. W. Eatough of the death of his mother, Mrs. Ida Parker Eatough, in Chippewa Falls, Wis., Sunday, March 15.

D. W. Bowman and son Junior made a business trip to Cedar City Monday.

Frank Gowans went to Cedar City Monday to see his wife who is in the hospital in that city. He was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Whipple and Miss Ora Lundquist.

Livestock Industry

Livestock is the largest and most important industry in Kane county and the Arizona Strip.

Every since the first white settler came to this territory, livestock has been the main support and capital wealth of the entire district. There are few places where cattle can be produced at a cost of as few dollars per head as they can be produced right here.

There are many branches in the stock business that are yet undeveloped in this district and when they are properly cultivated and developed, they can double the wealth of the entire district.

There are always new ways to make the present business pay more dollars per capita invested, and that is what we are going to try to bring to you through this column, which will continue from now on. We are inviting all stockmen to cooperate with us on the subject. Every man

Kane County Against Jap Colonization

According to the information given by G. D. McDonald, Kane county commissioner, Kane county definitely does not want any Japanese distributed among its people or placed in concentration camps within their county lines.

The question was placed squarely before the people of the remote sections of the state last week when Governor Herbert B. Maw conferred in Salt Lake City with representatives of the Japanese population of California. The governor took the stand that since these aliens must be moved from the industrial industrial areas of California because of the war situation, it would be unwise to move them to northern Utah, particularly Salt Lake, Utah, and Weber counties, because of the centralization of war industries in that section.

Governor Maw has invited every county to send a representative to voice the county's opinion on the question. Dave Pugh left for Salt Lake City Sunday, as representative for Kane county.

There is not one yellow, citizen in Kane county and to invite the Japanese to make their residents in our midst would be placing curse upon the coming generations of the county, because once they are here they are here to stay. Some say for only the duration—duration of what? If no one wants them now who will take them when the war is over? Those who have them for the duration will have them forever.

Which is better, an apple that has never had a worm in it or one that is infested with worms even if they can be cut out?

Mrs. James Brown Passes Away Wednesday in Kanab

Funeral services will be held this afternoon in the North ward chapel at 4 o'clock for Pearl Edna Brown, 55, wife of James A. Brown of Kanab, who died Wednesday night at her home due to a sudden heart attack.

Daughter of Edward and Elizabeth Kelly Pugh, she was born in Kanab April 22, 1896, and is a member of the LDS church.

She is survived, besides her husband, by two sons, Art, of Kanab and Norris of Boulder; six daughters, Mrs. Melvin Rider and Mrs. Doln Brinkman of Kanab, Mrs. George Brinkerhoff of Spring Canyon, Mrs. Milton S. Ray of Arlington, Arizona, and Mrs. Bernard Tait and Mrs. Leonard Tait of Mt. Carmel; one brother, David L. Pugh of Kanab, and eight grandchildren.

KANAB LIONS CLUB CHANGES DATE OF 49ERS CELEBRATION

Due to unavoidable circumstances, the Kanab Lions club this week had to change the date of their 49ers celebration to April 11, formerly April 18.

Beards being grown for the celebration are beginning to show among the men folks of Kanab. The Kanab Theatre is giving tickets each week for the best beard of the week.

Whit Parry returned to Kanab last Saturday and opened the Parry Lodge to its first customers the following Wednesday, compelled to turn some customers away because cabins could not be made ready fast enough to accommodate them. Mrs. Parry will come as soon as the lodge is put into operation.

has individual ideas of advantages that can be had in different branches of the industry; and right here is the place for you stockmen to air your views. These views will be of interest and to the progress of your fellow stockmen.

Any questions you would like to ask or information, just drop us a card and we will do our best to give you the answer.

The first article on marketing of livestock will appear in this paper next week.

L. H. Larsen
KANAB, UTAH

As publisher and manager of the Kane County Standard, I want to express my sincere appreciation for this privilege to serve you in this capacity.

I came to Kanab three years ago and bought a home to make Kanab my permanent residence. Many asked why I chose Kanab above all other places to make my home.

Being located in the heart of the most scenic part of American, Kanab has everything, and more too, in scenic attractions and outdoor sports. Grand Canyon, Zion national park, Bryce Canyon, Cedar Breaks, Wayne Wonderland, Boulder Dam and Mead lake, Rainbow bridge, Monument valley, Painted Desert, Petrified forest, and many other national monuments are within a radius of a few minutes to a few hours drive from Kanab.

For outdoor sports there is excellent fishing, trout and channel cat. Boating and horse back riding, with trail trips to some of the most alluring wonderland of our nation, and hunting of deer, elk, buffalo, Hon, quail, pheasant and grouse are among the many hunting attractions within a very close distance of Kanab.

And above all, you people are 100 per cent white Americans, with a strong determination to always help you fellow men. You are proud of your town and homes, which are attractive and well kept.

Now, why should my wife and I not choose Kanab with all this to offer, as the most ideal of all places to build our home and raise our family.

We have at Kanab what the world is fighting for and cannot get, namely—happy homes, mental and physical cleanliness, self control, honesty and fairness to our fellow men, and active progressive lives. Let us keep it this way.

KANAB GIRL GETS EDITOR POSITION ON COLLEGE PAPER

Miss Iva Lu Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaMar Johnson of Kanab, who is attending Dixie Jr. college at St. George has been recently appointed assistant editor of the college paper.

Miss Johnson is also captain of the Junior girls basket ball team, secretary of Junior Prom committee and is a member of the Lambda Delta Sigma. She graduated from Kanab high school in 1941.

NOTICE

In taking over the management and publishing of this paper I want it definitely understood that I, L. H. Larsen, the cowboy artist, am no relative, kin, friend or even acquaintance of N. H. Larsen, former editor and publisher of this paper.

Kane County Clubs To Honor Boys In Armed Service.

The leading organizations of Kane county have been working on a plan by which they can honor all the boys from Kane county that are in the armed forces. The people of Kane county wish to show their whole hearted appreciation for their gallant American spirit to offer their all to defend our homes and our country in the forces of our nation.

It has been suggested by several prominent members of the local organizations that action should be taken showing the deep appreciation of the people of Kane county, by sending them a subscription of the Standard for the duration of the war would be like a letter from home, keeping them informed of local happenings.

It will not be a gift or present, that is received once in awhile, but will be there regular every week to let them know that the folks at home are thinking of them and are proud of their gallantry. It has been suggested that each organization think this over and express their opinions at their next meeting.

Funeral Services for Former Resident In Orderville Sunday

ORDERVILLE—Funeral services were held here Sunday for Raymond David Esplin, 46 who died in the McGregor hospital in St. George Friday as the result of complications caused from kidney and heart trouble. Funeral services were under the auspices of Bishop Rulon J. Carroll.

He was born in Orderville January 3, 1892, the son of David and Hannah Hopkins Esplin. He lived here until 12 years ago when he moved his family to Kanab then later to Little Tank, Arizona. He was a prominent Southern Utah sheep and cattle grower. A member of the LDS church, he filled a mission to the southern states.

He married Lucy Heaton, October 17, 1914, in the St. George temple. Besides his widow, he is survived by three sons and daughters, Norma Esplin, St. George; Mrs. Andrew Holt, Gunlock, and Spencer Esplin, Little Tank, Ariz.; his father, and the following brother and sisters: Mrs. Julia Morris, Kanab; Mrs. William Snow, Cedar City, Fernard Esplin, Orderville; Mrs. J. C. Snow, Ward Esplin and Lee J. Esplin, all of St. George.

Funeral services were held in the Orderville chapel and were as follows: Opening song by choir, "Oh My Father," invocation by Fred C. Heaton of Moccasin; "The Deepening Trials" by choir. Speakers were Hans Chamberlain, B. H. Sorensen, Bishop Osmer Lamb and President Charles C. Heaton. Reading given by Vilate Esplin, "When You Come to Know a Fellow" and a tribute given by Roland Esplin. Mrs. Anne O. Esplin sang "A Perfect Day," followed by closing song "Sometime We'll Understand" by choir. Benediction was given by Bishop Edward Carroll, and interment was in the Orderville cemetery.

A number of Kanab men working in Las Vegas, Nevada, were home over the week end. Among them were Barton Swapp, Dale Judd and Vernon Black.

LANDSLIDE COVERS ROAD NORTH OF GLENDALE

A landslide last Friday morning which brought approximately seventy tons of soil, rocks, trees and brush on the state highway four miles north of Glendale was reported here. Recent moisture caused the slide.

NELSON-BUNDY

Miss Beatrice Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnathan P. Nelson who are former residents of Kanab five years ago, of St. George, was married Wednesday noon in the St. George temple to James G. Bundy of St. George. A reception for the young couple was held that evening in the South ward chapel in that city.

S. Ami Judd, grandfather of the bride, of Kanab, went to St. George for the wedding and reception.

Assistance Given to Farmers by FSA For Water Facilities

Farmers who need assistance in building farmstead water facilities may now apply to the Farm Security administration, which has been given the power to accept applications through its regular loan procedure. It was announced this week by Roll F. Argyle, farm security supervisor in Kane county.

Greatly shortcutting former procedure, qualified farmers and groups of farmers can get their financial and technical help directly from the Farm Security administration instead of going through several agencies. Mr. Argyle said the FSA will make facilities loans for three general purposes:

To provide water for use in farm buildings, including homes. Water from such facilities may be used for sanitary purposes but no loans will be made for plumbing or plumbing fixtures.

To provide for livestock near farm buildings. Applications for help in constructing range water facilities do not come under this authorization but may be submitted to FSA county supervisors for consideration under the usual water facilities program procedure.

To provide water for the irrigation of a garden not to exceed one acre in size.

Types of facilities being constructed under this program include wells—together with pumps and tanks—ponds, cisterns, pipelines and sprinkler system.

All inquiries concerning loans and all applications for loans should be made at the Kane county office of the Farm Security administration, located in the public library building, in Panguitch, according to Mr. Argyle.

The boys called from Kanab this week for selective service were Wesley Ayerett, William Leach and Barney Swapp Adams, who left for Salt Lake City Monday morning for examinations.

Summer Promises Movies to be Made in Kanab

Everything is pointing to a good movie season for Kanab this summer. From present indications the movie industry will be forced to leave Hollywood for all outside pictures, because of the war situation.

Mayor G. R. Aiken, Whit Parry, Fay Hamblin, and many other progressive business men of Kanab have been doing very much to make Kanab a more permanent movie center. Within a very short radius there is landscape scenery of the most gorgeous coloring suitable for technicolor pictures and a variety of landscape formations for almost any type of picture.

Because of the shortage in photographing supplies and equipment the government has asked the movie industries to produce fewer and better pictures for this year, and this is greatly in our favor because only the better, more expensive pictures have been produced at Kanab.

Salad Dressing Factory to be In Kanab Soon.

Whit Parry of Kanab has designed a new salad dressing that is so outstanding in quality and flavor that several hundred dollars worth of orders have already been sold for delivery as soon as the a factory can be put into operation, for which plans are now being completed.

Mr. Parry has all machinery ordered and is going to Salt Lake City in about 10 days to complete final preparations. Good substantial jobs have already been signed up to assure a broad distribution.

The factory will employ from 6-12 workers and is to be known as "Parry's Colonial Kitchen." The manufacturing of salad dressing is only one of the many new industries Mr. Parry has in mind, and aside from being the best place in the world to live believes that Kanab has many outstanding business advantages.

Dan Frost, Mrs. James Bunting and Mrs. Clair Ford and daughter, Anna May went to Salt Lake City Tuesday. Mrs. Bunting went on to Ogden.

Sportsmen Asked To Give Views On Coming Season

The Utah fish and game department this week asked sportsmen throughout the state to make recommendations on fishing and hunting seasons for the coming years, and bag limits.

In a memorandum of seasons and bag limits sent all wildlife federations, Mark Anderson, department director, asked sportsmen to submit comment on a series of questions vital to establishing the seasons.

"It will not be long," Anderson said, "before state and federal proclamations on fishing and hunting seasons and bag limits for 1942 will be taking shape. In order that we might have the benefit of your recommendations will you submit your comment on the following questions." Among the questions listed were these:

Opening dates and length of seasons; opinions on whether sportsmen favor one opening date for all fishing waters in the state, and if so, what date; what dates, hours of shooting and bag limits are preferable for waterfowl; bag limits and seasons on upland birds; preference on a longer or shorter hunting season for deer; preference on whether the deer bag limit should be increased or kept the same as in the past. Still another question asked if the sportsmen were satisfied with the usual early November elk hunt or if they prefer a different time?

Anderson explained that the questionnaire was sent the federations following inquiries by various sportsmen. In answering one such query, the director said:

"The usual arguments against an earlier season are that more meat spoils on an average with earlier seasons, that nearly all cattle and sheep are off the higher ranges, and leaves are usually off trees and brush by late October. The most logical argument against a longer season is that more than 90 per cent of the deer are taken in the first two days of the present 11-day season. Longer hunts would also cost more money for the department than the shorter season."

"There are also many good points in favor of an earlier season. Better weather, better roads, more recreation and less hardship are among them. There are two good reasons why the pheasant hunt is usually held early in November. First, to avoid as much as possible overlapping and conflict with other hunts, and, second, the farmers have partially all of their crops out of the fields. Irrigation is also at a minimum during that time."

Mark E. Pope and Joseph S. Johnson of Kanab left Sunday morning for Salt Lake City to work as carpenters on defense construction.
